

COMMANDER IN CHIEF PACIFIC

CAMP H. M. SMITH, HAWAII 96861

CINCPACINST 3810.4C

223

28 September 1979

CINCPAC INSTRUCTION 3810.4C

Subj: Pacific Command Intelligence Board

Ref: (a) PACOM Intelligence Plan CY 79-83 of 26 Mar 79
(b) CINCPACINST 3810.2A of 10 Mar 75

1. Purpose. To assign responsibilities, set forth administrative procedures, and provide general instructions for the Pacific Command Intelligence Board (PIB).

2. Cancellation. CINCPAC Instruction 3810.4B

3. Background

a. The CINCPAC Intelligence Plan provides the basis for integrated planning and management of intelligence activities in the Pacific Command (PACOM). To assist in meeting the responsibilities enumerated in the Plan and in exercising control of PACOM intelligence programs and resources, CINCPAC has established the PIB.

b. The membership of the PIB consists of:

(1) The Director for Intelligence, CINCPAC
(Chairman).

(2) The Senior Intelligence Officer of the PACOM Service Component Commands.

c. Representatives of other commands and activities deemed appropriate by CINCPAC will be requested to participate.

d. To assist the PIB in its management of PACOM intelligence activities, a series of functionally oriented Management Action Groups (MAGs) has been established, with responsibilities and functions as set forth in reference (b). In addition, ad hoc committees are convened to address short-term management issues and tasks as required.

28 September 1979

4. General

- R) a. The PIB is charged with reviewing and coordinating intelligence activities and programs, and with making recommendations to CINCPAC concerning the establishment and validation of requirements, adoption or modification of products and procedures, and the elimination of unnecessary duplication of effort within PACOM.
- R) b. The PIB addresses those aspects of each participating command mission which relate to intelligence support. Appropriate consideration is given to all intelligence resources presently or potentially applicable to PACOM missions including tasking relationships, which could have a bearing on PACOM resources and capabilities.
- R) c. The MAGs and ad hoc committees operate within the framework of and are subordinate to the PIB. Each MAG or committee chairman may submit to the PIB through the Secretariat those issues deemed to merit consideration by the assembled members of the PIB.
- R) d. The PIB, MAGs and ad hoc committees will convene at the call of their respective chairmen. Members may petition their respective chairmen to convene the PIB, MAG or committee as required.

5. Responsibilities

- a. CINCPAC will:
- (1) Provide a chairman for the PIB.
- R) (2) Provide a chairman for each MAG and ad hoc committee, each of whom will be responsible for the preparation and updating of necessary instructions for his/her respective group.
- R) (3) Provide a secretariat for the PIB with the responsibility of providing administrative support to the PIB and serving as the focal point for coordination of PIB, MAG and ad hoc committee matters.

b. PACOM Service Component Commands

(1) Provide the senior intelligence officer or, in the latter's absence, a designated representative to serve as a member of the PIB. (R)

(2) Provide for such representation on the MAGs and ad hoc committees of the PIB as required. (R)

JOHN B. MARKS
Brigadier General, USAF
Director for Intelligence

Distribution: (CINCPACINST 5605.1E)
Lists I and II

Copy to:
JCS
HQ DA
CNO
HQ USAF
CINCEUR
CINCLANT
USCINCSO
DIRNSA
DIA